Take control of your data

Constant sharing of personal data: voluntary and involuntary

Examples: create an account on an e-commerce site, accept cookies from a site,....

Realise that your data belongs to you.

Be aware of your rights: the law protects you... children, teenagers and adults alike.

Avoid disclosing ancillary information: don't give your full date of birth to all the sites, and don't allow the sites to remember your bank details...

Do not authorise all cookies: some track all your actions. Most sites allow you to choose the "essential cookies only" option.
Choose SEVERAL strong passwords.

Go to the CCIN website (practical information sheets, advice, podcast, complaint forms, etc.), which can act on request, including from minors directly.
